SPEECHES AT CULPEPER COURT-HOUSE. -A correspondent of the Richmond Enquirer writing from Culpeper Court-House, gives an account of the sayings and doings there on the 4th of July :

"On yesterday the colored people of this vicinity and county marched through our streets with drums beating to a spot near town, nominally to celebrate the 4th of July, but as the sequel showed, to listen to a political address from the Hon. John M. Botts. Henry Shackleford, was also invited to address them.

Mr. Shackleford commenced by saying he should speak to them not as a Republican in a party sense, but as friends of liberty; and would attribute their invitation to him, to a disposition to confer with their old friends and masters-this he would commend; -and he warned them not to be misled by Northern emissaries and professing friends, who came down here with deceitful lips and mercenary hearts to cheat and defraud them. They had been told that they would probably be re-enslaved. It was impossible; not one in one hundred thousand believed or desired it. [Groans.] As soon would the sun rise in the West and pursue his fiery course to the East, as that could take place. They had been told we were not their friends-to whom did they always look in time of need? Not to Mr. Wilson, or Mr. Sumner, or similar men at the North, but to friends and acquaintances here.

havior would be their safe passport, and always | the price of that article. ensure respect; 'that all would be equals before | the law according to their conduct." He warned them against the strangers who knew nothing of their interests and wants; but coming amongst them professing to enlighten them, always have some selfish scheme, some sinister purpose, some 'axe to grind,' some hat to hand around. He conjured them not to trust them. Mr. S. likewise told them that as an officer of the law, as prosecuting attorney, he would guaranty them as much justice and security from wrong as he would the whites .-He congratulated them on their discreet deportment, which commanded the admiration of all, and exhorted them to be content with their present status, as to civil and legal rights, assuring them that, if they would use their liberty wisely and deport themselves discreetly, we would live in harmony and peace together. Mr. S. spoke well for more than an hour. His remarks were timed, well conceived and

Mr. "Botts then spoke. He read a long letter which he had written in reply to an invitation of some colored persons, requesting him to become their candidate for the Convention. He indulged in characteristic invective of the Democracy, and the leaders of the party; and declared there was a scheme on foot to re-enslave the negroes, and pretended to prove it by Mr. Charles O'Connor's letter to the Maryland Convention-warned them against the arts of all demagogues, -but himself! He told them that if this was a war of races it would be because the whites could not control the negro vote. [Applause.] He declared himself for educating the negroes at the public expense; and also in favor of universal suffrage and universal amnesty of the rank and file of the army. Wants the people to live, but the leaders to starve. He urged them to register by all means-to go without the consent of their employers, and if discharged therefor, to come to him, he had wheat to rake, hay to cut, corn to plough, and he would give them employment. [Great applause.]—He denounced the South; said that for seven there had rappdiated the 4th of July, and in 5-tf CHARLES W. GREEN, 68 King street. therefor, to come to him, he had wheat to years they had repudiated the 4th of July, and all who remembered the day; and that, thank God, the "stone that the builders had rejected had become the head of the corner." Mr. Botts told the negroes he wanted their votes for the great Regublican Union party, and intimated very strongly that he would like to get 'em for himself. He said he does not know Mr. Hunnicutt, but will get his vote and influence if he can. He wants the negro vote to secure the South against any further rebellion and to keep down the Democracy. He said the convention in Richmond of 17th April, was filled with unfit and incompetent men, and implored them to select five of their own color as delegates on first of August. He took occasion to tell them that he was a member of the grand jury in Underwood's court. He was by law exempt, but he reasoned with himself, and got his consent at last. He there sat side side by with five negroes, and that they compared most favorably with the most intelligent of the panel. He advised the blacks to buy books-study hard -work all day and read all night-buy Æsop's Fables, the wisest book he ever saw-to be industrious-and not to think of holding office, though perfectly fit to vote! He wound up by very emphatically protesting against confiscation in all shapes and forms; and in singular contradiction of his former declarations, plainly told them that a war of races could only be the result of their own bad conduct. Throughout his speech, Mr. Botts rejoiced that the negroes had been emancipated, and felicitated them that they were now the sovereigns of the South; carefully remembering to "1st. That he tried hard to recapture and enslave his own, and 2nd. That in the Philadelphia Convention he opposed and denounced the attempt to enfranchise them!' COTTON BATS.

GUANO AND FERTILIZERS.

The subscriber-has on hand a full assortment of the most approved MANURES, which he is prepared to sell in any quantity desired, at the LOWEST MARKET RATES. As the prices are uniform the farmer can obain his supplies as well by correspondence as though he were to purchase in person. I OFFER: Peruvian Guano, of the best quality.

Bolivian Guano. This article comes from the same section as Peruvian, which it closely resembles in texture and appearance. It is much richer in Phosphate, but has less Amonia. For Mr. S. further told them to stand on their stiff soils or stiff sub-soils it will answer quite as merits; all had to do the same; that good be- well as Peruvian, and it costs but two thirds > Mexican Guano, of four grades. Ground Bones. Whitelock's Cerealizer. The high reputation borne by this article as the most effective and reliable crop producer made in the United States, induces me to ask the larmer to test it alongside of any manure he may apply.

> Woolston's Amoniated Bone Phosphate. This > article is manufactured by the same house, and contains all the best qualities of Peruvian Guano and Ground Bones. WM. H. IR WIN, No. 5, south Union street. mh 28-tf GUANO.-REED'S AMMONIATED SU-PERPHOSPHATE OF LIME.-The best > superphosphate yet offered to the farmer, possessing all the activity of Peruvian Guano, but being far more durable in its effects. It contains a large amount of animal matter in a highly concentrated form, which, combined with its soluble bone phosphate of lime, cannot fail to render it very valuable as a fertilizer. Notwithstanding we believe it to be the best super-phosphate in the market, yet, by a process peculiar in its manufacture, whereby the expenses are lessened, we are enabled to sell it very low, with a liberal discount to dealers.

REPARATOR CAPILLI.

Throw away your false frizzes, your switches, your wig-Destructive of comfort, and not worth a fig; Come aged, come youthful, come ugly and fair, And rejoice in your own luxuriant hair.

REPARATOR CAPILLI, For restoring hair upon bald heads (from whatever cause it may have fallen out) and forcing a growth of hair upon the face, it has no equal. It will force the beard to grow upon the smoothest face in from five to eight weeks, or hair upon bald heads in from two to three months A few ignorant practitioners have asserted that there is nothing that will force or hasten the growth of the hair or beard. Their assertions are false, as thousands of living witnesses (from their own experience) can bear witness. But many will say, how are we to distinguish the genuine from the spurious? It certainly is difficult, as nine-tenths of the different preparations advertised for the hair and beard are entirely worthless, and you may have already thrown away large amounts in their purchase. To such we would say, try the Reparator Capilli; it will cost you nothing unless t fully comes up to our representations. If your druggist does not keep t, send us $1, and we will forward it, postpaid, together with a receipt for the money, which will be returned you on application, providing entire satisfaction
